South Carolina
Aquarium

The Boeing Learning Lab at the Charleston Maritime Center is the ideal locale to gather for connection, socialization and celebration. This modern, intimate venue from the South Carolina Aquarium sits on the Charleston Harbor, boasting unprecedented waterfront views, including the Ravenel Bridge and USS Yorktown. An expansive wall of windows showcase a stunning backdrop of deep blue waves and shorebirds during indoor events, while a covered outdoor space allows for immersion in a gentle sea breeze.

Whether you're looking to host a wedding with picturesque views, gather colleagues to collaborate in an inspiring space or enjoy the company of dear friends in a private setting along the water, we'll work with you to create your perfect event.
